Summer, according to some, is the brief interlude between winter and winter. With a cooler and wetter than normal spring, perhaps some of you might concur. However, summer is also a time of growth and life. Despite the slow start to spring, the corn appears to be doing well. Small grains will likely be harvested within a month. An early frost might threaten all row crop, especially this year with late planting. Perhaps we are hoping for an extended season of growth this year.

Speaking of seasons, the Season of Pentecost is a season of growth as well. It is during Pentecost that the designated texts for Sunday expand in scope moving from salvation to living a life that is consistent with salvation. Jesus in Mark invites you and me to enter more deeply into what it means to be a disciple. Without imposing a new law, Jesus, none the less invites even cajoles us to reach out to him and to others. To him as a way of keeping us anchored in God's grace, to others as a way to further the kingdom which initiated the season of Pentecost (the first Pentecost being a kick-off of the campaign) Jesus' followers were recruited by the Holy Spirit in Acts chapter 2.

What does it mean for you to live a Spirit motivated life from day to day? How would the presence of the resurrected Christ alter not only your Sunday morning life but your Monday to Saturday life as well?

As we proceed through Pentecost and the growth enhancing 14 hour days, how might God be calling you to move outside of yourself to bask in the light of His Gospel to be a participant in the mission of furthering the work of God's Kingdom right where you are?

God bless,
Pastor Bruce

A Sunday School teacher decided to have her young class memorize one of the most quoted passages in the Bible: Psalm 23. She gave the youngsters a month to learn the verse.

Little Rick was excited about the task – but he just couldn't remember the Psalm. After much practice he could barely get past the first line. On the day that the kids were scheduled to recite Psalm 23 in front of the congregation, Ricky was very nervous. When it was his turn, he stepped up to the microphone and said proudly, "The Lord is My Shepherd, and that's all I need to know."

Our sympathies to the following families on the loss of their loved ones:

Dick and Mavis Wang and family on the loss of brother Rickie Leach.

Dalan and Diane (Juve) Rasmussen on the loss of his father Gerald Rasmussen.

THANK YOU

Thank you to Pastor Bruce for your many visits to Gerald while he was hospitalized.

Bits and Pieces

1.) QUIT WORRYING:

Life has dealt you a blow and all you do is sit and worry. Have you forgotten that I am here to take all your burdens and carry them for you? Or do you just enjoy fretting over every little thing that comes your way?

2.) PUT IT ON THE LIST:

Something needs to be done or taken care of. Put it on the list. No, not YOUR list. Put it on MY to-do-list. Let Me be the one to take care of the problem. I can't help you until you turn it over to ME. And although MY to-do-list is long, I am after all.... GOD. I can take care of anything you put into MY hands. In fact, if the truth were ever really known, I take care of a lot of things for you that you never even realize.

3.) TRUST ME:

Once you have given your burdens to ME, quit trying to take them back. Trust in ME. Have the faith that I will take care of all your needs, your problems and your trials. Problems with the kids? Put them on MY list. Problems with your emotional roller coaster? For MY sake, put it on MY list. I want to help you. All you have to do is ask.

4.) LEAVE IT ALONE:

Don't wake up one morning and say, "Well, I'm feeling much stronger now. I think I can handle it from here." Why do you think you are feeling stronger now? It's simple. You gave ME your burdens and I'm taking care of them. I also renew your strength and cover you in my peace. Don't you know that if I give you these problems back, you will be right back where you started? Leave them with ME and forget about them. Just let ME do my job.

5.) TALK TO ME:

I want you to forget a lot of things. Forget what was making you crazy. Forget the worry and the fretting because you know I'm in control. But there is one thing I pray you never forget. Please, don't forget to talk to Me-OFTEN!! I love YOU!! I want to hear your voice. I want you to include ME in on the things going on in your life. I want hear you talk about your friends and family. Prayer is simply having a conversation with ME. I want to be your dearest friend.

6.) HAVE FAITH:

I see a lot of things from up here that you can't see from where you are. Have faith in ME that I know what I am doing. Trust ME; you wouldn't want the view from MY eyes.

I will continue to care for you, watch over you, and meet your needs. You only have to trust ME. Although I have a much bigger task than you, it seems as if you have so much trouble just doing your simple part. How hard can trust be??

7.) SHARE:

You were taught share when you were only two years old. When did you forget?

That rule still applies. Share with those who are less fortunate than you. Share your joy with those who need encouragement. Share your laughter with those who haven't heard any in such a long time. Share your tears with those who have forgotten how to cry. Share your faith with those who have none.

8.) BE PATIENT:

I managed to fix so in just one lifetime you could have so many diverse experiences. You grow from a child to an adult, have children, change jobs many times, learn many trades, travel to so many places, meet thousands of people, and experience so much. How can you be so impatient when it takes ME a little longer than you expect to handle something on MY to-do-list? Trust in MY timing, for MY timing is perfect. Just because I created the entire universe in only six days, everyone thinks I should always rush, rush, rush.

9.) BE KIND:

Be kind to others, for I love them just as much as I love you. They may not dress like you, or talk like you, or live the same you do, but I still love you all. Please try to get along, for MY sake. I created each of you different in some way. It would be too boring if you were all identical. Please, know that I love each of your differences.

10.) LOVE YOURSELF:

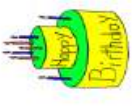

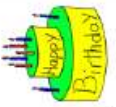

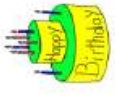

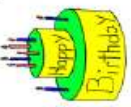

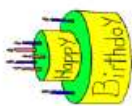

As much as I love you, how can you not love yourself?

You were created by ME for one reason only- to be loved and to love in return. I am a God of Love. Love ME. Love your neighbors. But also love yourself. It makes MY heart ache when I see you so angry with yourself when things go wrong. You are precious to ME.

Don't ever forget.....
